FILM MAKING CAMP

By Louise Denyer

The children will explore the literary classic Alice in Wonderland by Lewis Carroll, specially adapted by Louise Denyer for their age group. They will delve into the plot and themes of this timeless story, bringing it to life through acting and adapting it for film and documentary projects.

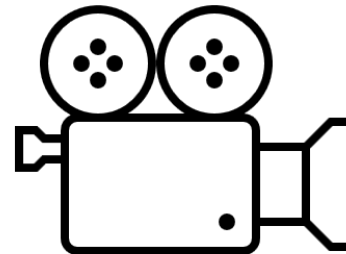

Classic literature like Alice in Wonderland is vital for children because it offers rich insights into human nature, society, and the challenges of growing up. By acting out the story, children can better understand and enjoy the material, as “there's no better way to learn than to have fun!”

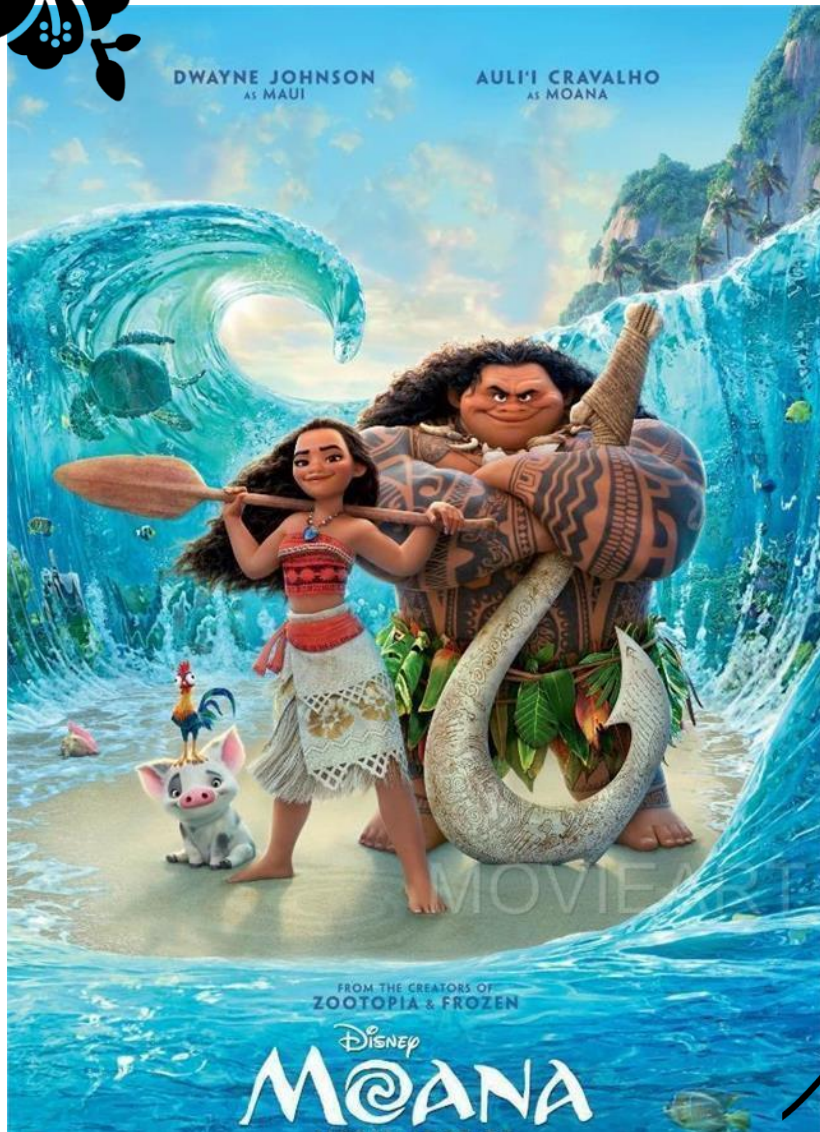

Alice in Wonderland is a fantastic book full of imagination and adventure, where Alice’s curiosity leads her on a journey of self-discovery. Through this process, children not only grasp the story's deeper meanings but also develop important life skills. Participating in the play encourages teamwork, mutual respect, collaboration, and creativity.

So, join us on this exciting adventure and take on the roles of Alice, the Mad Hatter, the Queen of Hearts, the Cheshire Cat, and many other colorful characters!
