Kick off your teen's summer with a thrilling, creative adventure at our Midsummer Mystery Film Madness – Acting in English Workshop!

This exciting 5-day workshop (6 hours per day) blends performance improvisation and advanced film-making to help teens build acting confidence, storytelling skills, and English fluency.

Through improvisation games and a final performance tournament, students will sharpen their spontaneity, stage presence, and public speaking abilities.

In the film-making component, teens will write, direct, and act in their own short films or commercials, exploring genres, emotional depth, and technical elements like sound and lighting.
